Doris was my dear friend and neighbor for many years. I will miss her and the stories she told. She always had kind words to say about everyone and she loved her children and always looked forward hearing from them. At a few days short of being 96 she was really sharp in her mind. I was blessed to have her for a friend.

Doris was such a beautiful person. I have known her since 2018 and I always looked forward to talk with her and hear her stories about her life. She loved her children and lifted them up in prayer all the time. Will miss her. Marilyn Frantz
