Bob and sandy were dear close friends of mine, 40+ years. They were always welcoming and kind. Bob helped me many times with house issues. He would let me know when there were bag sales at SVDP. We could talk, share stories 4 hours. When time to part they were always kissing me on the lips and we said I love you, that close friendship kind of love. And yes, family was very important, but good friends were part of the family too. I miss them both, will remember them fondly. Is there a graveside to visit? I pray we meet one day in God's glorious kingdom. Meanwhile. RIP. Rosemary a Locher, formerly of roscommon mi

Bob was a wonderful person. One of the first people I met at St. Micheal when we moved up here to Roscommon in 2011. He was so welcoming and just a kind soul. We worked together at times at St. Micheal and at St. Vincent's. I always enjoyed my talking with Bob and working with him. He is so missed up here.
