Remembering Alice who directed our children's choir at Immanuel. I remember when she married in 1958 when I was 11. She'll be joining the choirs of heaven now until we meet again.

Back in High School 1950, Alice was a good friend of my sister Marilyn Bailey. We had an upright piano, and whenever Alice came over I would ask her to play the latest song by Theresa Brewer. "Music, Music, Music" Jump forward, 60 to 70 years, when we visited Alice, I reminded her of that. So, the next time we visited her, she sat at the piano and played "Music, Music, Music" for us. She still is a thoughtful, wonderful lady.
