Mrs. Thompson (I could never call her by her first name, out of respect) was my mother's best friend and growing up, she was like a second mother to me. She was always busy keeping her house clean and caring for her family. I know she was tired many days, but she always had a smile on her face. Rest in peace, Mrs. Thompson. You're now with Mr. Thompson, Dale and Paul. You'll be missed.
