Cousin Mike was a wonderful guy. Such a survivor of so many setbacks, but always had a smile on his face whenever we'd see him. Will truly miss him. May he rest peacefully and I pray for his family to find peace with such a tremendous loss. Bless them always. Love, Tammy DeBano Joyce xo

Oh my little brother Mikie. I curse the day you found out about your cancer but I am grateful for the days we got to spend together because of it. Yes our trips to U of M were for a crappy reason but our trips to the grocery store afterwards were memorable. 5 days a week for 6 weeks we participated in a study of how food choices affected the side affects of chemo and radiation. We watched the videos and took our notes to the store to pick up food for dinner. I cooked and you worked on our house. A perfect compromise! Now you have moved on from this earth and all its hardships. I am envisioning our sister Cheryl waiting with open arms saying Migue! Welcome home! We've been waiting for you! Until we see each other again may you rest peacefully, little brother.
