My beautiful Nana always taught me to be kind and compassionate to anyone you encounter because you never know what they're going through. She had not one ounce of hatred in her body and I always looked up to that. The things I will miss the most is her little hugs and slobbery kisses:)

Nadeen Santoro Compton lit a candle in honor of Kathryn.

Kathy started out being my sister-in-law in 1980 to being a best friend over the years. If you ever had an ailment she would come up with a home remedy for you. If things weren't going right for you she would always say a prayer for you and tell you to give it to God. I loved Kathy and will miss her so much!
