I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remeber Maxs infectious smile and laugh.He has left me with fond memories, especially when waiting on him and Lee (Double Trouble).He was a giving man and has left his legacy through his children and grandchildren who are just as kind and caring as their Father. God be with you all." People will forget what you've said in life, and what you have have accomplished in life, but they will never forget how you made them feel" Maya AngelouMax always made people feel special and very happy to have known him, leaving everyone with a smile.Jeanne Coulthard

Max is my role model of what a good man should be, honest, loving and sincere with his words and was a humble champion of my life. I will forever be grateful for his mentorship and love. I will miss our talks and time together. Now Max, Shirley, Jeanie and Lee can once again deal the cards and laugh at the latest thing their children, Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren have done. God bless you Max.

I had wonderful Uncles that were like big brothers. Uncle Max was wonderful. I so remember meeting him and Aunt Shirley at Ryans in Lakeland, Florida on Sundays and having brunch with them. Went and visited them at their trailer there and he shared his genealogy things with me, made me a lot of copies of things he had and gave me a Luther genealogy book. He was generous and giving. Loved going to Barryton and seeing he and his family. He was much loved.
