“ I remember when Jeffy was in town staying with his Aunt Lynn and Uncle Ron, my mom and dad. He made plans to go out with my dad and I for the opener of early doe season. We got out of the truck, half way through the field when Jeffy looked at my dad and said Uncle Ron I forgot my bullets. Man was I red hot mad ! So happy for that memory. Never knew how much it would mean to me! So glad we got that one and only hunt together.

“ I am so sorry to see this. I was one of Jeff's teachers in Algonac during my first years of teaching as "Miss Allen." He was one of my very favorites! I'm keeping your family in my thoughts and prayers. I know he will be so missed because of the great guy he was.
