“ I always liked Uncle Joe. Two memories I have of him. The first was in 1996. We had just built a deck on our house but didn't have the benches in yet. He told us that people were going to fall off the deck because there weren't any sides on it. We assured him that sides would be coming. The second is that I had a sun visor on at a Pavlov Family Reunion. My hair was sticking out of the top. He asked me if any birds were nesting in it. I remember him manning the Farmer's Wagon at the St. Mary's Parish Festival for many years. It was a joy seeing him there.

Your dad was such a good man. Very proper and a true gentleman. He will be greatly missed. What will carry on is the mark he left for all of us in the way he raised his 5 children. Continue to be the outstanding people you are.

May you rest in eternal peace, Uncle Joe and enjoy being with Aunt Lorraine again..

“ Uncle Joe will always have a special place in my heart. Growing up, he loved to get people together to play softball. In 2000 there was a big family reunion and Uncle Joe called for a game and my daughter Sarah got to play with him I'll remember the jeep rides, and how I surprised him when he delivered blood from the Red Cross to our lab at Port Huron Hospital. I will miss him. My love to all my cousins during this sad time. Mikki

“ Celebrating our beloved Uncle Joe

Uncle Joe epitomized his generation, the greatest generation. He will be remembered as a Veteran, a visionary, and a dedicated hard-working man. Above those qualities, he also possessed a kind and generous heart. Think of the financial risks and long hours he must have endured when he started his company, while at the same time raising 5 young children with our beloved Aunt Lorraine. He was THE family storyteller, always speaking with purpose. With his words there was an opinion to be considered, a lesson to be learned, or a smile at the end of one of his more comical stories How blessed we all have been to follow in the footsteps of the folks who came before us. They are never far from my heart. Rest in Peace Uncle Joe.
